

ADNY EngageNY ELA Grade 1 Guide 2015-2016

The EngageNY ELA Curriculum is composed of Listening & Learning Domains and Skills Units. The Listening & Learning Domains and Skills Units are intended to be taught simultaneously. Recommendations for which domains to teach are provided in the table below. You may choose to teach the domains sequentially or to reorder the sequence of domains to better fit your students' needs. However, be sure to take into account the ADNY Interim Assessment Blueprints and the expected standards to be covered when determining which domains you will teach and the order in which you will teach them. Skills units should be taught based on the needs of your particular class. Please note that hyperlinks to the domains and units are provided throughout this document.

Literary Domains Teach all domains (1,3,9)	Informational Text Domains *Choose one-two Science related domains (2,7,8) *Choose one-two Social Studies related domains (5,10,11) *Science and Social Studies related domains may also be integrated into the Science and Social Studies curricula. See Cross-Curricular Connections for recommendations.	Integrated Domains: Literary and Informational Texts Choose one (4,6)
